BADLY INJURED

C. V. Johnson is Hurt Testing His New Machine.

STRIKES TELEPHONE POLE

WIFE SEES THE ACCIDENT AND PICKS HIM UP.

In testing the incline of his new loop the loop now in course of construction at Joseph Devey's blacksmith shop on Franklin avenue, C. V. Johnson was thrown from his wheel at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon and was seriously injured. The incline is forty feet high and over 100 feet long, and he rode down it at a terrific speed. As his wheel struck the ground he lost con-trol of it and was hurled into a telephone pole some thirty yards away on the other side of the avenue. His wife stood at the foot of the incline as he came down, and when she saw him dash into the pole she tried to pick him up.

He was carried into the blacksmith shop and afterwards was taken to his home at 164 East Second South street, where he was attended by Dr. C. M. Benedict. He sustained a broken jaw and was bruised and badly cut about the head. He had a serious cut above the left eye, which bled freely, but it is believed he will recover. He regain consciousness shortly after his wounds

Wheel Breaks the Force.

When his wheel was picked up it as discovered that the handle bars had struck the pole first and broken the force of the blow. In all proba-bility if he had struck the pole square he would have been killed instantly, but as it was he was hurled sidewise against it over the handle bars, strik-ing it with the side of his head and neck. The front wheel and bars on the blcycle were badly smashed.

Johnson is putting up the loop him self and Devey is engaged in doing the iron work. Each day as he has worked on his loop he has ridden down the incline to test it.

Johnson has never looped-the-loop in his life, but has a patent in the way of a trap-door which does away with the danger of missing the loop. With this improvement he claims that he can perform the feat, and his wife still holds that he will try to be ready for the state fair.

Hurried Call on Colored Woman.

His wife says this is the first accident he has ever had, but the colored inhabitants of the avenue tell of his bunting through a door into an old colored woman's kitchen who lives just across the street in front of the in-cline. The loop has not been connected to the incline, but is being made in sections, and Johnson intended to have it finished in about ten days.

It was reported on the street yesterday that Johnson had been killed in games for this cup are now being the attempt to make the loop and all played at the Country club and are the afternoon crowds went to the avenue to the scene of the accident. This of the city. Following these games is the third man who has been injured while making an attempt to per-form the feat in Salt Lake City. John-Newhouse. LOOPING LOOP Two Women Charged With Imposing on Charitable People of the City.

> Two alleged women grafters who have been working the people of Salt Lake for alms for the relief of Mrs. Reilly hose husband and son were drown in the Jordan, were arrested yesterday by Officer John D. Brown, on the charge of obtaining money under false pretences. The police department has been on their trail for some time, and not until yesterday were they located. One has given the name of Mrs. A. Wilson and the other as her daughter, Dol-ly Smith. This case has been reported to the police several times of their col-lecting considerable money and failing to turn it over to Mrs. Reilly. Yesterday as Officer Brown was takng them to the station Mrs. Wilson slipped five silver dollars into his hand and asked him to release them. He will use this evidence on the charge of trying to bribe an officer, Accordng to Officer Brown, they did not deny the charge he made against them and tried to purchase their release.

Their bail was fixed at $50 each, and without any hesitation Mrs. Wilson pulled a roll of bills from her stocking for the bond. They left the station, and the officers believe that they have made their escape from the city.

TO BUILD ROAD

Wall Street Journal Tells Why He Needs Outlet.

EAST GREATLY INTERESTED

WESTERN PACIFIC IS TO BE COMPLETED BY 1907.

Utah and the country west of it continue to be the center of railroad in terest for the entire country, and the duel between the Gould and Harriman systems is the game above all others that railroad people are watching. The recent action of the Harriman people shutting Gould out from participation in the fruit and coal business in its territory is followed with the announcement that Gould is to have au outlet from Salt Lake to the coast as quickly as the line can be constructed to render his independent of all other railroad organizations and give him practically a transcontinental line without a break. It is now taken for granted on all sides that Gould is the power back of the Western Pacific. This has been made plain by numerous developments in recent days. On the heels of all that has gone before pointing in the same direction, now comes the Wall Street Journal with the following:

"Early in February of this year the Wall Street Journal made the statement that the western terminus of the Missouri Pacific in 1907 would be on San Francisco bay. A month later, after a series of denials from head-quarters that the Goulds had any interest or any contract whatever with the Western Pacific, we reiterated the statement and added a further state-ment, as follows:

'The route of the new line will lie through Beckwith pass and it will meet the Denver & Rio Grande at or near Thistle, at the south end of Salt

"President Jeffery has recently made a public statement that the Goulds have a traffic alliance with the West-ern Pacific, and that the road will be built to a connection with the Rio Grande at Thistle. "Wall street regards the traffic alli ance story as a mere subterfuge. It is firmly convinced that the Western Pacific is a straight Gould project and that the capital of the Gould estate, Gould railroads and Gould associates is directly behind the new railroad. "The reasons the Goulds want to reach the Pacific is that they are unwilling to allow their system to become a merely local railroad. They have been shut in and inconvenienced nany ways by the development of the Harriman system and the Rock Island. There is no reason why they should allow their system to become dependent upon existing lines to the Pacific coast. The most competent critics of the railroad situation have long believed that some such develop-ment as this was inevitable and that, without it, the Missouri Pacific in 1907 would be a second Alton, at the mercy of at least three great rival systems.

SOLEMN SERVICE FOR YOM KIPPUR

Jewish Day of Atonement Begins This Evening.

TWO FORMS OF CEREMONIES

ORTHODOX AND REFORMED HE-BREWS WILL CELEBRATE.

Yom Kippur, the day of atonement will be observed in Salt Lake City by both the orthodox and reformed Jews ! -by the former according to the Hebrew traditions and the ancient ritual, and by the latter in accordance more modern requirements. The day begins at sunset this evening and ends at sunset tomorrow evening, and during that time the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob who regard the Mosaic law as binding upon their consciences, will partake of neither food nor drink. This evening, according to Hebrew chronology, marks the begin-ning of the year 5,665 since the creation of the world.

The orthodox services will be ducted in the new synagogue on Third East street, between Third and Fourth outh streets, by R. Koppel and G. M. Lewis, S. Salmenson is president the congregation. The synagogue was recently completed at a cost of $15,000 The service here will be solemn an impressive, and will open with the in toning of a prayer, in which the con-gregation will pray for a continuance of divine favor during the comin-year and the blotting out of the trans gressions of the year just closed, to be followed by the singing of "Kol

Kneel During This Prayer.

With forms shrouded in white, as though just arisen from the tomb, and feet unshod, the members of the congregation will gather in the syna-gogue just as the sun disappears in the west, to commemorate in penitential service the day of atonement, as their ancestors have done for many centuries. They will kneel during the offering of the prayer, the only time during the year that the orthodox Jew bends the knee while in the synagogue. The service will close at sunset to morrow evening with the blowing o LIVELY RUNAWAY.—There was a runaway in Canyon road and State street last evening that caused considerable excitement among the residents of that part of the city, but fortunately no one was hurt and no serious damage was done.
